WITHOUT FRAUDULENT SCHEMES AND FRAUD: ELECTRONIC PROTECTION OF CITIZENS, WHO INVESTED IN HOUSING CONSTRUCTION, HAS STARTED WORKING IN UKRAINE

From now on, the construction customer must first register special property rights for such housing in the State Register of Real Property Rights on immovable property based on information obtained from the Single State Electronic System in the Field of Construction (EDESSB), and then alienate them to buyers at any stage of construction implementation. Such registration is possible only if there is a valid right to perform construction works. This became possible within the framework of the implementation of the Law of Ukraine 2518-IX, in the development of which BRDO team participated. We explain why this is important.

If the document is approved by the Parliament, candidates for the positions of civil servants, heads of local state administrations, their first deputies and deputies, military officers who undergo military service under contract, prosecutors, in tax and customs authorities, managers of state enforcement entities, middle and senior police officers of the National Police, senior positions of other law enforcement agencies and civil protection services, etc. will be required to speak English. The draft law provides for the use of the English language when interacting with foreigners in emergency aid units and when they cross the state border of Ukraine, as well as in the fields of education, culture, transport, and healthcare. Also, in accordance with the law, internet representations (in particular, websites) of state authorities and local self-government bodies, along with the official state language version, will be in English. The law should create favorable conditions for English to be studied and used in all spheres of the country's life.
